

University of South Alabama Baldwin Campus
Usage Policy

The buildings of the University of South Alabama Baldwin Campus (USABC) are to be utilized for the following purposes:

- 1 – All buildings are to be utilized for the academic courses offered by the University of South Alabama.
- 2 – Certain buildings or rooms may be used by request of an individual associated with USA for purposes related to USA business such as conferences, meetings, and departmental retreats.
- 3 – USABC may co-sponsor events for students which are also open to the community, i.e., concerts, lectures, and plays.
- 4 – USABC may co-sponsor events for the community which enhance the mission of the University of South Alabama.
- 5 – Certain office and/or meeting space may be utilized by community groups or groups affiliated with departments at the University for purposes which enhance the mission of the University of South Alabama.